HON. H. P. CHEATHAM.

HON. JOHN P. GREEN.

Recognizing Hon. John P. Green as the leading factor in Ohio politics, the President has appointed him chief of the stamp division of the Postoffice Department. This is a position of responsibility and Mr Green is now discharging his duty faithfully and satisfactorily. It is an office that has heretofore been held exclusively by white men. One of Mr. Green's political rivals, editor H. C. Smith, in the great State of Ohio is endeavoring to get even with him by attempting to belittle both the office and Mr.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." OUR POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Commissioner Wight has partly revolutionized the police department to the extent of changing the head of the detective department and several of the lieutenants. While we regret the transfer of Inspector Hollinberger, no doubt the change in that department is for the best of the service. Detective Mattingly will no doubt make some improvements. Among those who were promoted, the name of one of the best and most fearless officers on the force, was left out and that man is Sergeant Daley. He would have made a fine lieutenant. Sergeant Kenny is to be congratulated on his promotion. We have every reason to believe that he is one man who will give colored officers a show. He is one of the most efficient men on the force. THE BEE has every reason to believe if the case of Hall had been placed in the hands of Weeden and Horn, at the time the old shoe-maker Pail was killed, the assassin would have been caught long ago. No two shrewder men can be found on the force than these men.

The police department should have been reorganized years ago, but we never had a Commissioner who had sense enough to do it. It is hoped before Mr. Wight finishes he will give the police department instructions in the use of pistols and clubs.

OUR HIGH AND NORMAL SCHOOLS.

The introduction of outside teachers in our High and Normal schools, is an imposition upon the tax payers in this city. We want to know, what right have the people to pay taxes for the purpose of supporting a lot of teachers to study a profession? Our schools are the asylums for this class of teachers, and it should be stopped. Both trustees Bruce and Shadd, members of the High and Normal School Committee, have it in their power to improve the condition of both of these schools. We would like for both of these gentlemen to answer this question: Are our High and Normal Schools to be asylums for imported teachers to enable them to study professions? Do you intend to make a change in the personal of either or both schools, or are these teachers who were in both schools last year to be retained in those schools this year to the detriment of the pupils? We don't object to people studying professions, but we do object to our schools being made conveniences for people from other states. The people demand a change in these schools.

MR. BRUCE AND HOWARD.

The New York Age, in its last issue, practically nominates Senator Bruce for president of Howard University. We thank the Age for the compliment paid to our distinguished townsman in this connection, but candor compels us to say that Mr. Bruce has no aspirations in that direction. He is trustee of the university and as such, will give it his loyal support and faithful services; beyond this he will not go. The republican party needs Mr. Bruce in its business and it is going to have him.

SENOR CANOVAS' ASSASSIN.

The assassination of Senor Canovas should be a lesson to the American republic to protect their chief magistrate against an assassin's bullet. It is important, for the protection of human life, to make the penalty for the sale of fire arms, by merchants who deal in such traffic so high that they will be compelled to remain in prison until their fine is paid.

Canovas may have been a tyrant; he may have been opposed to Cuba's independence, but will his assassination help the independence of Cuba any? We believe that Spain will hold her own, notwithstanding the assassination of Canovas.

THE DAILY BEE.

Several attempts have been made in this country to publish a negro daily newspaper and every time, these papers have died before maturity. It has been a great question of conjecture whether the people want a daily paper or not.

We have an idea of attempting the enterprise, believing that a great and fearless negro daily at the capital of the nation, will be of material benefit to the people. Will the people of this country guarantee us a subscription of 30,000? If so we are ready and willing to give them a first class daily paper.

For the information of Mr. Harry C. Smith of The Cleveland Gazette, THE BEE begs leave to inform him that Mr. Parker Hare had been a clerk in the law office of ex-Senator John P. Green, for five consecutive years, until the democrats removed him. Brother Smith was also a candidate for office and posed as the biggest man in the State of Ohio. Does Mr. Smith know of a gentleman in his state and town by the name of Mr. Geo. A. Myers? If so we advise him to consult Mr. Myers new diary and become great.

If the editor of the Cleveland Gazette will be convinced he will no doubt say that ex-Senator Green never offered a bill that was declared unconstitutional.

THE RACIAL COMBINE.

GREEN AND CHEATHAM CONFESS THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE RACE DISCUS THE BEST MODE TO ASSIST MR. HANNA'S RETURN TO THE SENATE.

Hon. Jno. P. Green and Recorder H. P. Cheatham had a consultation on last Wednesday afternoon and discussed ways and means to render whatever assistance necessary for the return of Senator Mark Hanna to the Senate next November. These gentlemen will work in conjunction with Mr. Geo. A. Myers, the member of the republican committee in the State of Ohio.

Senator Hanna will have the undivided support of the colored people of the country and especially in Ohio.

HON. GEORGE A. MYERS.

Hon. George A. Myers, of Ohio, has recently been elected a member of the State Executive Committee in recognition of his faithful services to the party. Mr. Myers is a broad-gauged man; he is free from the petty prejudice of petty men; he is free from the envy that seeks to destroy established reputations; he does not belong to that coterie of little fellows who, feeling too keenly their own weakness and lack of merit, spend their time in making war upon what they delight to call "the old leaders." He honors the men who, by dint of great abilities and great energies, have won laurels for themselves before his day and he points to them as worthy of the praise and emulation of the young men of the land. Such is George A. Myers and such the people of Ohio know him to be.

Editor Fortune of the New York Age is positive if nothing else. He writes as he feels and he feels differently every four years.

AN IDEAL MAN.

EDMUND H. DEAS IS A DESERVING AND FULLY QUALIFIED CANDIDATE FOR ANY POSITION.

There is no wider or better known character in South Carolina politics than Edmund H. Deas. Born with Republican inclinations, reared in the eternal fold of the same, he has been thoroughly armed for the battles waged for the upholding of the principles as enunciated by his devoted party.

He has been unswerving in his fidelity, earnest in his labors, and untiring in his efforts. In the trying days of the reign of the republican party in this State, when men of valor, patriotism and undaunted courage were needed, among the recruits was found this valiant young statesman. He succeeded and led the scattered and frightened forces to a cherished victory. When we consider the raging and blood-curdling democratic campaign in this State four years ago, when no republican dared ascend the stump, how nobly this personage canvassed for the party. No one in this State will deny for a moment the deserving qualities of Mr. Deas, and to day he carries a living testimonial of battle-scarred marks. That he is the real leader in this State is no doubt or dream. He has represented his State in every State and national convention for the last sixteen years, and is to-day stronger than any republican in his State. He is responsible solely for the instructing the delegation for the present incumbent as President.

Edmund H. Deas is an ideal gentleman, statesman, and true and noble friend. He is cognizant of true friendship, but is as equally reticent to ingratiate.

Edmund H. Deas is a deserving and fully qualified candidate for any position, and it is the hope of every South-

EDMUND H. DEAS.

Carolina republican, irrespective of factions, that the President will recognize and appreciate his services by appointing him to a good position.

E. B. THOMPSON.

Columbia, S. C.

THEIR LEADER IGNORES THEM

THIRD AUDITOR YOUNGBLOOD FAILS TO SEE HIS CONSTITUENTS.

The colored republican office seekers in the city are greatly dissatisfied with Col. Wm. Youngblood, of Alabama, at present Third Auditor of the Treasury Department. It is alleged that he pays no attention to the appeals made to him by his colored friends from Alabama, nor will he pay any attention to their letters when he receives them. Col. Youngblood, it is claimed, can do a great deal if he so desires, but he is not inclined to help his colored friends. Col. Bill Stevens has become disgusted and left the city and claims that he will be needed again in the sweet bye and bye.

We need no leaders. If talking and apologizing to the white people for the mistakes of the Negro makes a leader, then the Times is right in naming Mr. Washington. In the first place Negro leadership is a failure and a fraud. We never had a leader and it is not likely that we will have one any time soon. We cannot find a man who has sense enough to lay aside office-seeking long enough to tell administrative powers that they are wrong. The press of the county is the leader of the Negro. We mean the Negro press, with but a few exceptions. We need men who are brave enough and will make sacrifices enough to stand up for the Negro. We need no leader. If we did, we could not find one.

Perhaps the flim flam leader of the Blaine Invincibles will be convinced of a thing or two.

The editor of The Cleveland Gazette shows his envy and jealousy by his continual attacks on ex-Senator John P. Green.

DRAWS A COLOR LINE.

JAIL PRISONERS ARE DIVIDED—COUNTY JAILER WHITMAN CONFINES NEGROES BY THEMSELVES AND CAUSES A ROW—SHERIFF PEASE WARNED—MR. JONES IS INDIGNANT.

[From the Chicago Record of August 5, 1897.]

Jailer Whitman has established a color line in the county jail. It is confined to a section of the third floor of the new jail building, and is regarded by the jail authorities as a star movement in a well-ordered scheme to reform criminals. The plan was brought into the bright glare of public scrutiny late yesterday afternoon. The sheriff himself did not know of Jailer Whitman's new scheme of criminal regeneration until it was brought to his notice by John G. Jones, a south side colored attorney.

Some time during the day Mr. Jones learned that the jail authorities had set apart for colored prisoners exclusively a row of cells on the third floor of the jail. The attorney proceeded forthwith to the sheriff's office to seek an explanation for the "infliction of this fresh indignity upon the colored race."

COMPLAINS TO THE SHERIFF.

"Mr. Sheriff," he said, "does anything of that kind meet with your approval? I have lived here for forty years, and it is the first time that I have ever heard of a color line being drawn among confined criminals."

Sheriff Pease said the jailer was responsible for the management of the jail, and he was bound to approve of anything which that official deemed best for the maintenance of prison discipline.

When seen a short while after Mr. Pease said he had left the entire management of the jail to Mr. Whitman, and had not heard of the separation of the prisoners until it was brought to his notice by Lawyer Jones. The jailer had been trying for some time to grade

Hon. John P. Green.

Green. We would like to ask editor Smith if he would not have taken the office himself, could he have gotten it? It comes in bad taste for a man after having gone in with beak and claw for an office for himself and having failed to land, to turn upon his more successful rival and attempt to slay him by ridicule and caricature. Mr. Green is known and appreciated by the people of Ohio, and cannot be disposed of in this summary way.

Some people are of the opinion that our High and Normal Schools need reorganization. THE BEE is of the same opinion.

HIGH DUTIES ON BUTTONS.

An Injustice to the Poorer and Middle Classes.

The button manufacturers, present and prospective, are unusually greedy in their demands for tariff duties. McKinley duties are entirely too slow for the button infants. The following is part of a statement made by button importers:

The proposed duties on buttons, as per schedule of the finance committee of the senate, are as a rule prohibitory and would prove a severe hardship on goods used by the poorer and middle classes, and also manufacturers of various garments used by the mass of our people, such as low-priced shirts, underwear, clothing, etc. The following data will give some idea of the inequalities of the proposed duties:

Agate Buttons—Present duty, also McKinley bill, 25 per cent.; proposed duty of one-twelfth of one cent per line per gross, plus 15 per cent. ad valorem, would average from 67 to 161 per cent., bearing heaviest on the class of goods that make up the great bulk of the importations. The following schedule, taking the styles that sell, shows the range proposed:

WHITE LENTILS ON CARD SOLD TO JOBBING TRADE.

No. Lines.	Price.	Present duty.	Proposed duty.	Equal duty.
1 1/2	18	$0.124	0.031	0.190
1 3/4	20	0.254	0.059	0.255
2	20	0.310	0.078	0.256
2 1/4	20	0.378	0.096	0.287
2 1/2	20	0.445	0.110	0.316
2 3/4	20	0.510	0.128	0.347

BUTTONS FOR MANUFACTURING TRADE IN BULK.

Material.	Price.	Present duty.	Proposed duty.	Equal duty.
Mineral.	14	0.138	0.034	0.180
Ivory.	16	0.145	0.036	0.182
Lentils.	18	0.153	0.038	0.203

These buttons are not made here, nor are they likely to be made. First, because little or none of the raw material required has been found here; second, because the total sales being limited to this country would not warrant the investment of the necessary capital in a plant needed to make the various styles wanted. It is evident that the intention is to exclude these goods in the interest of some higher-cost goods. The proposed duty would be a real hardship and bear heavily on the class of people who buy "china buttons," as well as on the manufacturers of cheap shirts, underwear, etc.

Bone Buttons (to sew on)—Present duty, 35 per cent.; McKinley bill, 50 per cent.; proposed duty, from 106 to 194 per cent. These goods are mostly sold to manufacturers of cheap underwear, children's waists, corsets, clothing, etc.

Prices of Linens Go Up. When the tariff bill was about to be framed the republican leaders stated that they desired to be moderate and to avoid anything like excessive rates. Mr. Aldrich, when introducing the amended measure into the senate, claimed that his rates were generally lower than those of the house bill. The linen schedule, however, is a notable one of many exceptions. In the senate rates are higher than those of the house and much higher than anything ever before known.

Under the McKinley bill of 1890 linens were assessed 35 per cent., with a few exceptions as high as 50 per cent. ad valorem. Under the rates proposed by the senate a large proportion of the goods in everyday use will be assessed from 65 to 85 per cent. and in some instances over 100 per cent. The following table shows some of the changes in the cost of medium and low grade linens:

	Price per yard.	New duty.	Pres. New duty.
Damask tablecloth.	20	25	25
Crash for roller towels.	5 1/2	8 1/2	8 1/2
Colored canvas for dress lin.	10	15	15
Colored canvas for dress lin.	10	15	15
Linens for butchers' aprons.	15	22 1/2	22 1/2

The domestic manufacturers in whose interests these changes are supposed to be made have stated that they do not desire over 50 per cent. duty on linen goods, and one of the principal manufacturers of linen and cotton handkerchiefs in America (of Acheson, Harden & Co., Passaic, N. J.) states that he does not desire any advance of duty on his goods.

The gross injustice of these duties can be appreciated when it is remembered that, owing to climatic conditions, good fiber flax cannot be grown in this country, and when it is further remembered that the kind of linen taxed is the kind that is used by the poorest classes, while a much lower duty is put on the finer grades.

Means Tens of Millions.

Careful estimates show that nearly one-half cent a pound profit is given to the trust on every pound of sugar refined—a profit which means tens of millions of dollars. Such a duty assures for it as great a power over the consumer as it now enjoys over the producer, and no single duty in the senate measure requires a fuller explanation of the motives leading to it—Harper's Weekly.

CLAUDE M. JOHNSON TO GO.

HIS RESIGNATION WILL BE CALLED FOR VERY SHORTLY.

Mr. Claude M. Johnson, the gentleman from Kentucky, who has but little to be called upon to resign his position in a few weeks, and Capt. Wm. Meredith of Chicago, Ill., will be appointed in his place.

A recent investigation has developed the fact that Mr. James F. Childs, a colored republican from Alabama, who was receiving $700 per annum, was reduced from the classified service, in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, to $266 per annum, and a white man was put in his place. Mr. Childs is doing the same work that he was doing when he was receiving $700. The investigating committee that recently investigated Morgan will report to the Secretary the case of Mr. Childs. This is civil service with a vengeance.

The Mississippi fight still goes on and ex-Fourth Auditor Lynch holds the winning hand so far.

It is understood that Mr. Lynch will not recommend any more white men for Mississippi offices until a few colored men are appointed.

Sugar Trust Exists No Longer.

We are assured by the Sugar Trade Journal of May 13—organ of the sugar trust—that if ever a monopoly existed in the sugar refining business it exists no longer, and it is not likely that it will ever be renewed. This is delightful news. The journal was discussing an amendment to the senate bill to have refined sugars pay the same duties as raw sugars in cases where the manufacture is controlled by a monopoly. If this "visionary proposal" should pass the senate, it will jeopardize the tariff bill and the sugar trust's tens of millions of surplus profits, which are so near at hand that the mouths of Havemeyer and Seales are watering for the prospect, and tries to keep up its courage by having its organ inform the world that "a lot of such visionary proposals will, no doubt, be introduced while the bill is under discussion, but in the end the sound judgment men will control and a tariff bill will be passed without very much change from the senate schedule."

The trust may be right. It usually is, for it can predict what will happen to the sugar schedule of the senate bill. It knows what demands will be made by its agents and tools in the senate, and it also knows the power of those who make demands to enforce them. It puts $70,000,000 against the interests of 70,000,000 people, and it knows from experience which has most weight in the senate, where two or three hold the balance of power.

No, there is no sugar trust, and never was one, and in the end the sound judgment will prevail. "When the devil was sick the devil a saint would be."

Perpetual Motion by Protection. The California argument for higher fruit duties is a sort of perpetual motion. The only disadvantage the California fruit raiser is at is to be found in the cost of his land, but the only thing that makes his land expensive is the profitability of fruit culture.

So the matter works out in this way: The great profits of fruit raising sent the value of land up to hundreds of dollars an acre. The interest on the value of the land makes a large item in a fruit raiser's balance sheet, and he feels the need of a high price for his fruit. This Senator Jones procures for him by letting it be known that he will not vote for the tariff bill unless it contains duties on hides and increased duties on fruits and the cheapest sorts of wool.

The increased duties adds to the profits of fruit culture, and the price of land takes another rise, whereupon the fruit grower complains that the interest on his land investment is so great or the rental he has to pay for his land is so high that there is an insufficient profit in the business for him, and the only thing that will save him from disaster is more duty.

Logically this process can be carried on indefinitely. Practically it cannot, because with the increase in the price of fruit the consumption of fruit will decline. The consumer will be worn off for the change. The grower, so far as he is not to be considered as a land owner will be no better off, but the value of the land will be as high as the profits of fruit culture will permit. The Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin.

Protection and the Farmer.

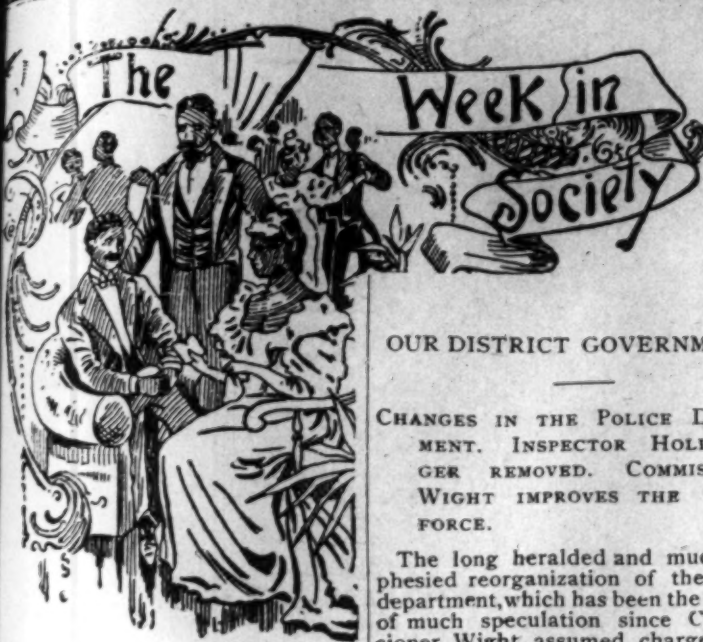

Lawrence and His Rams. "Lawrence is not interested in wool, but in sheep," the Chicago Tribune (rep.) explains. "He and a score more of Ohioans raise blooded rams, which they sell to the ranchmen to improve the breed of their sheep and better the quality of their wool. This is a profitable business, but the country would not be ruined if it were stopped. It is in order to be able to sell a ram that Judge Lawrence poses as a disinterested champion of the sheep-raiser."

Trust "Cuts More" Along Protest against the duty on hides. But the beet sugar trust cuts more ice, says the Boston Transcript (Ind. Rep.).

THE AMERICAN QUEEN.

A charming damsel wreathed in orange-colored lilies greets the readers of the August number of the 1st American Queen. The contents are light and interesting as befits the weather, and several stories will while away the Summer days, including "Love Will Find a Way," "A Cadet Camp Episode," and "Moriturus."
The Southern mammy of many years ago is entertainingly described and illustrated. The Paris letter of fashions describes the famous Grand Prix race, where the most elegant of day costumes are worn and new ideas gleamed for the coming season. Outdoor sport and pastimes are written of so as to charm us with the thought, and we actually grow hungry in reading The Queen's Cooking School, conducted by Mrs. Lemcke. The decoration of small rooms and em-broidering of picture frames will prove of interest to all home and fancy workers. The fashion illustrations are capital, and we are safe in saying that there is not a dandy paragraph within the pages of this very attractive issue.DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ears.
There is only one way to cure the deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars;

SECRET ORDERS.

Hiram Abiff Lodge, No. 3, F. A. A. A. T. R. Masons of the District of Columbia was opened in a blaze of glory at its first communication of August. Most Excellent King Solomon, viz. Sir Knight E. W. Shields, 33°, reclined in the Oriental Chair and wielded the power (in me invested) with such dignity that a great many of the workmen thought Solomon had returned to earth, until they looked well and saw the Shiny Bearer on the Peg of Wisdom. Many sons of Hiram Abiff were present at this communication attired in full dress. The first, second and third was exemplified by Bro. Shields and his efficient officers. Past Master John M. Washington, 32°, carried the boys through the Middle Chamber in a manner that was pleasant to behold. Among the prominent members were Past Grand Master D. F. Seville, 33°, Grand Master John N. Adams, 33°, P. G. Master Swatz, 33°, of West Va., P. G. M. Geo. W. Phillips, 33°, Bro. Styphus of Pennsylvania, several visiting brethren from the Isle of Cuba, Rev. P. Lucas, 33°, Master of No. 2, and Bro. J. H. McDowell, 33°, Master of No. 1, and G. H. Priest, Comp. W. H. Johnson, 33°, and others. The Secretary of No. 3 can't be beat. The communication was one of the finest ever held by No. 3, and her sons showed up in good numbers; there was also present a good attendance from No. 1 and 2 lodges. Solomon Haskins was the proudest man in the lodge. On the third Sunday all members, together with other members, will assemble at the hall at 6 p. m. in dark clothes, white gloves, for the purpose of going to church. The brethren can rest assured that there will be no monkey business at this sermon like there was at Shiloh Church on Ascension. The minister that is going to preach this sermon is a man and a minister, and no orders or others can cause him to lie and run away from his pulpit; he is a man indeed, &c. &c. Take notice.

When people in the East die, and after they have been placed in the grave, the Imam or priest then addresses the corpse. By the way of illustration we will suppose the Seventeenth street crowd to be the corpse in the grave, the following dialogue would take place:

My son, from whence cometh thou?
Seventeenth street crowd. From the bolters at the navy yard.

My son, where did you get your charts?

Seventeenth street crowd. Like the bolters, from the grand lodge created by the lodges.

My son, when did this great event happen?

Seventeenth street crowd. When they skipped from the Compact in 1871.

My son, such being the case, how can these naval chaps call you bogus when they are living themselves in a glass house?

Seventeenth street crowd. All fools are not dead yet.

My son, we had better rest. At this stage camel's milk is introduced.

For light upon dark subjects read the BEE.

There are at present in this country seven different kinds of Masons, as follows: The white brethren, the Spanish Masons, the State Rite, the Compact, the Ancient York Rite, the Chinese and Japanese. All working Masonry and claiming to be the pure article.

The Sunday School will open at 3:30 p. m. and at 6 p. m. General assembly for sermon at church. Don't forget the BEE, our organ.

I should think as much raking as some of our friends have received that they would cease firing by this time, but it appears like they are still continuing the irregular fire, &c. The first thing that they know a hot shot will enter the magazine, and we behold arms and legs flying in the air and heads to burn.

Read the BEE and our column.

I desire to call the attention of the brethren in the D. C. to one D. R. Stokes, from Texas. From the Signet of April, 1897, it appears that Stokes has been conferring the degrees of Royal and Select Master upon Master Masons in Texas, and the brethren down in those sections are behind him for it. When the General Grand Council meets in Dallas December 27, 1897, his case will be called up for investigation, &c. From a letter received this morning from Texas he has been charged, tried and convicted of illegally conferring the Royal Arch Degrees by the Grand Chapter of Texas, which convened July 26, and he was expelled. This brother, I believe, is now in Washington. He came here to see me, but allowed himself to be lead in other directions, &c., hence I have failed to see him, but when he returns to Texas he will meet a warm reception by the powers in charge. Brethren will please take due notice. For further information secure the American Signet of April, 1897, of Fort Worth, Texas, the organ of the Masons of Texas.

As I said on the jump, I have my lieutenants not only in the enemy's camp here in Washington, but all over the country, and they keep the Craftsman informed, in order that he can direct the stingers in the BEE in the proper direction to sting, and when, &c., &c. Watch the BEE for news, and read the same and keep the copies, for in time the information will be valuable.

Mr. John Curtin keeps one of the best places in West Washington. He is a thorough going business man and liked by everybody who does business with him.

Mr. G. W. Sanford, dealer in all kinds of fresh fish, can be found in the Center Market, stands 428 to 432. He is one of the jolliest men in the business and one of the most reasonable.
